FOREWORD

Because we do not regard each man as an end within himself but as a part of an eventful whole, we present this Maxwell genealogy that each descendant may look back with pride and appreciation and forward with a new hope and a greater sense of responsibility. Knowing well that "some mute, inglorious Milton here may rest," we give no labels of obscure or famous, but rather we prefer that each one read to find himself a part of a rich heritage.

CHAPTER ONE

MAXWELL

“Origin of the Name of the Family—Maxwell.”

“When in possession or occupation of lands generally took the surname in this way and then arose a curious process when such names were conferred afresh upon other lands. I cannot give you a better instance of this than is afforded by my own surname a tolerably common one in Scotland. In the 11th Century Maccus the son of Unwin became possessed of certain lands on the Tweed. Here there was an excellent salmon-pool, just below Kelso bridge, which became known as “Maccus’wiel,” the A.S. (Anglo-Saxon) for a pool, now “Maxwheel.” This name got attached to the surrounding lands, hence members of the family became known as Aymer, John or Herbert de Maccuswell, for apparently they thought more highly of their salmon-pool than of the house near St. Boswells, Maxton—“Maccus tien.” As time went on, the preposition was dropped and the family became simply Maxwell. But they prospered and obtained other lands, and so we find the name, which was originally a place-name, once more at Maxwellton, Maxwellfield and Maxwellheugh.”

Rhind Lecturer in Archaeology
Rhind Lecturer in 1895.
Pub. by Wm. Blackwood and Sons
Edinburgh and London.

In August 1927, Annie Lou Maxwell had the pleasure of visiting in the home of Sir Herbert Eustice Maxwell; a rich experience which will always live in her memories. Sir Herbert was a charming host. His guests at that time included Lord Darling, Judge of the King’s Bench of the High Courts of Justice of London; Lady Darling, his daughter; Sir Andrew Agnew of Scotland; Sir Herbert’s daughter Mrs. Graham of Scotland and her three very charming grown children, a son and two daughters.

Sir Herbert Eustice Maxwell was the 7th Baron of the House of Monreith. The ancestral home was a beautiful English stone baronial hall in Whigtowshire, near Whauphill, a lovely section of Scotland.

He was born in Edinburgh Jan. 8, 1845; studied at Eton and Christ Church, Oxford. In 1880 he married Miss Mary Campbell of Boquhan. He was Lord of the Treasury from 1886 to 1892, chairman of the Royal Commission on Tuberculosis in 1897-98, and chairman of the National Library of Scotland from 1928 to 1935. He was a lecturer on Archaeology and Scottish History in Edinburgh and Glasgow and at the age of 86 in August 1927, he had just returned from a lecture trip. He was an outstanding gardener; had collected plants from all parts of the world. His garden, in the center of the estate, was open to the public every Thursday afternoon. Sir Herbert died October 30, 1937, age 92.

EARLY HISTORY OF OUR MAXWELL FAMILY

We, descendants of Reverend Thomas and Mary (Pemberton) Maxwell, who have migrated to different sections of the United States, have been told for generations that the earliest Maxwell, of our line, who came to America was JOEL MAXWELL, the son of Eustice Maxwell of Maxwellton, Scotland. Eustice Maxwell was a General in the Army of Inquisition where there was a constant war between Scottish noblemen of Catholic faith and the Presbyterian clergy. Scottish immigrants came to America in search of religious freedom. Those who came to Virginia entered the state by way of Pennsylvania or Maryland. Some historians say that Thomas Maxwell was one of three brothers who came to America. Two went to Virginia and one went to New York.

Gen. 1.

JOEL MAXWELL came to America in the early part of the eighteenth century; some say 1706, others say during the Jacobite Rising. The Jacobite Rising began in Scotland in 1715 where religious and political unrest was rampant. Many went from Scotland to Ireland then to America.

Gen. 2.

THOMAS MAXWELL, the son of the immigrant, Joel Maxwell, married Keziah Blake in Middlesex County, Virginia, May 2, 1737. The marriage is recorded in the Christ Church Parish Register of that county, page 170.

KEZIAH BLAKE was born July 12, 1719, daughter of John and Johannah (Ball) Blake; granddaughter of George and

The second is the fact that the United States is a free nation. It has no king, no emperor, no pope, and no other form of absolute monarchy. The third is the fact that the United States is a democratic nation. The people have the right to elect their representatives, and to have a say in the government. The fourth is the fact that the United States is a peaceful nation. It has never been at war with any other nation, and it has always been a friend to peace.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The history of the United States is a story of growth and progress. It is a story of a people who have built a great nation out of a small colony. It is a story of a people who have fought for freedom and justice, and who have shown the world that a better way of life is possible. The history of the United States is a story of hope and optimism, and it is a story that should inspire all people everywhere.

THOMAS MAXWELL AND THE BAPTIST CHURCH

THOMAS MAXWELL was born Sept. 8, 1742, in Middlesex County, Virginia, the son of Thomas Maxwell and his wife Keziah (Blake) Maxwell; was baptized October 1742. His birth is recorded in the Christ Church Parish Register, Middlesex County, which is an Episcopal Church and at that time was the Church of England. In Thomas Maxwell's own Bible we find "Thomas Maxwell born Sept. 8, 1742, born again 1768"—a phrase used at that time to mean he accepted the Baptist faith.

THOMAS MAXWELL was clerk of the Rapidan Church in Orange County, Virginia—a Baptist Church which was constituted in 1769, from 1790 to 1792 when he and his family migrated to Elbert County, Georgia. In 1793, he and his close friend, Rev. Dozier Thornton, organized Falling Creek Baptist Church in Elbert County, Georgia. Holly Springs Baptist Church, Elbert County, Georgia was organized as an arm of Dove's Creek Baptist Church, Elbert County, Georgia, on May 9, 1795. John Doss was the first pastor who filled out the first year. Then Thomas Maxwell served that church for thirty years—1796-1826—a few years before he died in 1837.

CHURCHES OF VIRGINIA AND GEORGIA AND THOMAS MAXWELL

The following are excerpts from printed accounts of the different churches that influenced the life of Thomas Maxwell, from Christ Church Middlesex County, Virginia, where his birth was recorded to Holly Springs Baptist Church Elbert County, Georgia where he was pastor the last years of his life.

CHRIST CHURCH, MIDDLESEX COUNTY, VIRGINIA

From "Old Churches, Ministers and Families of Virginia"

By Bishop Meade in two Volumes

Published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., 1872

Quoted with permission from Publishers.

"Middlesex County was originally a part of Lancaster County, when the latter covered both sides of the Rappahannock River for an indefinite distance. Between the years 1650 and 1660 it is probable that it was a separate county. Until that time one minister served the whole county, although it is probable there were two parishes on either side of the river before the division of the county. Those on the south side were called Lancaster and Piankatank. They were originally one and called Lancaster; and, in 1666, became one again, under the name of Christ Church, Lancaster County.

"I have before me the vestry-book of the parish, from the year 1663 to the year 1767, commencing two years before the reunion. There is a reference to a Rev. Mr. Cole, who was minister of both of Christ Church near Urbanna, Middlesex Co., Virginia the parishes in the year 1657; also a Mr. Morris, as being minister previous to the reunion."

Established 1666, Rebuilt 1712.

"In the reunion, in 1666, it was agreed by the vestry to build a mother church, by the name of Christ Church at a place about midway the parish, after the model of that at Williamsburg, the glass and iron to be gotten from England. It was accordingly built about midway between Brandon and Rosegill, the seats of Wormeleys and Grymses, not far from the Rappahannock River, and was used until the year 1712, when a new one was built in the same place."

Vol. I—pages 350-357.

"In the year 1692 the Rev. Matthew Lidford was chosen minister of the parish for one year, but soon died. He was succeeded by the Rev. Gray ----- . In 1699 the Rev. Robert Yates was minister, and continued so until the year 1702 or 1704 when he returned to England in ill health. He appears to have been esteemed by his vestry, who continued his salary for some time in the hope of his return. The Rev. Bartholomew Yates (I believe to be his son) succeeded him. The Rev. John Klug succeeded Mr. Yates in 1767." Vol. II, Page 359.

"And what has become of the old Mother-Church... the great church as she was styled in her journal... standing in view of the wide Rappahannock, midway between Rosegill and Brandon, more perhaps than fifty years ago it was deserted. Its roof decayed and fell in. Everything within it returned to its native dust. But nature abhors a vacuum. A sycamore tree sprung up within its walls. All know the rapidity of that tree's growth. It filled the void. The boughs soon rose above and overspread the walls. In the year 1840, when it pleased God to put it into the heart of some, in whom the spirit of old Virginia Episcopalians still remained, to seek the revival of the Church's dry bones in Middlesex, that huge, overspreading tree must first be removed piecemeal from the house, and the rich mould of fifty years accumulation, to the depth of two feet, must be dug up, before the chancel-floor and the stone aisles could be reached. The walls, faithful workmanship of other days, were uninjured, and may still remain while generations of frail modern structures pass away. The house is now one of the best country-churches. The graves of our ancestors are all around it." Pages 269-270.

The following is quoted from a letter from Rev. Emmett H. Hoy, Jr. to Annie Lou Maxwell in 1952. Mr. Hoy is pastor of Christ Church:

"The building is the same that was renovated in 1840. The 1714 walls go up to the arch of the roof. The church is located in a beautiful old cemetery. Some of the graves out date the church building."

"There is a move on foot now, working towards the restoration of the church to its 1714 appearance. This is to be done through the interest and generosity of one of our non-resident members."

EARLY BAPTISTS OF VIRGINIA

From "Imprisoned Preachers and Religious Liberties in Virginia." By Rev. Lewis Peyton Little (deceased).
Permission to quote given by Mrs. Little,
Williamsburg, Va.

"In the year 1661, the supremacy of the church of England was again fully established. A church was to be built in each parish; and vestries appointed. . . . In those parishes, where there was not a minister to officiate every Sunday, a reader was appointed, whose duty it was to read divine service every intervening Sunday."

"In 1673. . . . That same year the authorities are found zealously guarding the interest of the church, for it was ordered that a house of worship should be erected on every plantation, and the service must be that of the Church of England. Every one was required to attend church, or be heavily fined, and no one could sell his tobacco till his tax for the support of the minister was paid."

"The first Baptist Church in Virginia was organized in Prince George County by Robert Noedin who was ordained with Thomas White in London, 1714. White died on the way to America. There were early Baptist churches in the Isle of Wight and Surrey Counties."

"About 1742 there was a growing dissatisfaction with the character of the preaching in the parish churches and many dissenters were beginning to absent themselves from the Established Church. Baptists in Culpeper, Stafford and Amelia Counties and perhaps in many other counties would meet together and hear a sermon read by one of their own members."

From: "Virginia Magazine of History and Biographies," Vol. 18,

"Petition of Albemarle and Amherst Dissenters Petition referred to Committee of Religion read . . . To Honourable, the Delegates, Representatives of the Commonwealth of Virginia assembled at the city of Williamsburg . . . The Memorial and Petition of the Dissenters from the Church of England and others in the counties of Albemarle and Amherst humbly sheweth 168 petitioners. . . . included Benjamin Maxwell and Thomas Maxwell. (The language of this petition is exactly similar to that from Albemarle, Amherst and Buckingham (ante) and a number of the signers are the same.”)

THOMAS MAXWELL IMPRISONED IN CULPEPER COUNTY JAIL

Rev. Lewis Peyton Little in his “Imprisoned Preachers and Religious Liberties in Virginia,” which we have quoted, list Thomas Maxwell of Culpeper . . . “Jailed for preaching the Baptist faith.” Other Baptists in Culpeper County who were persecuted were James Ireland, John Corbley, Elijah Craig, Thomas Ammon, Adams Banks, Nathaniel Saunders, Andrew Moffatt, William McClanahan, John Pickett, John Delaney, Samuel Harris and David Thomas.

PATRICK HENRY—DEFENDER OF THE PERSECUTED BAPTISTS

Patrick Henry, the eloquent speaker of that day, went from Hanover to Fredericksburg to defend several Baptist preachers who were in jail for preaching the Baptist faith, contrary to the law. Rev. Little says the first time Patrick Henry’s speech in defense of these people appeared in print was in “The Baptist Memorial and Monthly Record” for May 1845. Vol. IV Number 5. That Patrick Henry defended Thomas Maxwell when he was imprisoned in Culpeper County jail has been traditionally told to descendants of Thomas and Mary (Pemberton) Maxwell.

JAMES MADISON—ALSO A DEFENDER OF THE BAPTISTS

James Madison appeared in court in his own county, Orange, to defend the Baptist non-conformists. Madison took a very prominent stand in behalf of the removal of all disabilities. It is interesting to note that a grandson of Thomas and Mary (Pemberton) Maxwell who was born when Madison was president was named James Madison Maxwell, born Nov. 16, 1813. . . son of William and Jane (Higginbotham) Maxwell of Banks County, Georgia.

RAPIDAN BAPTIST CHURCH—ORANGE COUNTY, VA.

Rapidan Baptist Church in Orange County, Virginia was constituted Dec. 4, 1769. It was "So called from the south west branch of the Rappahannock in Orange County." "The meeting house is 40 feet by 20 feet, built in 1769 on land given by Major Zachariah Burnley." (Major Zachariah Burnley, son of Hardin Burnley, was a nephew of Israel Burnley who married Hannah Terrell.) (See Allied Families Burnley—Terrell—Seals—Little.)

From: Rev. Lewis Peyton Little

"Thomas Maxwell was clerk of the Rapidan Church where he and his family were members. When or how long Thomas Maxwell served as clerk of the Rapidan Church is not known as the first eight pages of the oldest Minute Book of the church have been destroyed, but on page 9, is the record of a business meeting, dated July 3, 1790. Thomas Maxwell being the clerk and Elder George Eve the Moderator. George Eve grew up in this church, was ordained its pastor on Sep. 6, 1775, serving as such for twenty-one years, or, until he removed to the State of Kentucky. He served other churches also at various times and was generally Moderator for the Culpeper Association as long as he was in Virginia.

"Thomas Maxwell may have been Clerk of the Rapidan Church during the major part of George Eve's administration, as he signed all the minutes of the church which appeared on pages 9 to 18, 1790-92. The minutes recorded on the 17th and 18th pages besides containing the statement that at this meeting Thomas Maxwell was granted a 'Letter of recommendation and also a letter of dismissal,' and that a new Clerk was appointed to take his place, are so interesting otherwise, that they are given in full:

"At a meeting March 17, 1792, Brother Wm. Mason and James Garnett came at the church's request.

"1—Bro. William Stanley brought complaint against Bro. Charles Cooks for drinking too much, he being absent, appointed Bro. Jarrell to cite him to attend next church meeting to answer complaint.

"2—Bro. Matthew Daniel brought complaint against Wm. Tate for some disorderly behavior appointed Bro. Learner Watson to cite him to next church meeting to answer complaint.

“3—Granted to Bro. Thomas Maxwell a letter of recommendation and a letter of dismissal for himself and wife and likewise for his children, who are members of this church.

“4—The church, with the helps in conjunction, proceeded to the business of the Eldership and finding Joseph Eddens and Jeremiah Kirtley willing with desire of the church to be ordained Elders for them, the Presbytery prayed for them, with laying on the hand in the name of the Lord.

“5—Granted to Bro. Jacob Furnace a letter of dismissal, also granted to Bro. Thomas Furnace and wife, Sister Mary Bolen, letters of dismissal—appointed Thomas Maxwell to write them.

“6—Appointed Bro. John Leatherer, clerk of this church in the room of Thomas Maxwell.

From—“MEMOIR OF ADIEL SHERWOOD, D.D.”

Written by His Daughter—Julia L. Sherwood 1884.

Chapter X—“Early Life in Georgia”—Page 146.

“In his reminiscences Dr. Sherwood says, ‘In the Fall of 1819, I was at Tugalo Association and met four ministers over eighty years old.’ He mentioned Dozier Thornton, John Cleveland, Francis Calloway, Sr. and Thomas Maxwell, and adds, ‘Thomas Maxwell had been imprisoned in Virginia during Episcopal reign, and in preaching through the window grates to the crowds outside had cut his long nose. The scars were still prominent. He died about ninety-five years of age.’ ”

Chapter XII—FIRST VISIT HOME—RETURN TO GEORGIA—pages 180-1.

“I passed a day with Mr. Madison’s family, at his home. I was surprised to find him acquainted with all the distinguished Baptist ministers from Boston to Savannah.

“Mr. Madison had been very intimate with the Baptists of Virginia, and aided them to throw off the union of the Church and State by which Episcopalians had obtained the power to fine and imprison dissenters. As is well known, several ministers were arrested and imprisoned, in Virginia, for preaching the Gospel without obtaining a license from the courts, one of whom, Thomas Maxwell, I had seen at the Tugalo Association only a few months previous. Against the Statutes, which authorized these outrages, Mr. Madison wrote a protest and remonstrance, and they were repealed."

"On my way to Georgia I passed a few hours at Monticello, the home of ex-President Jefferson, who was at that time deeply engaged in building up Virginia University at Charlottesville. I also attended an Association at Pittsylvania County, where I met several ministers of distinction. Among them Rev. Thomas Maxwell and Rev. John Kerr, formerly a member of Congress and a most distinguished man."

"I reached Ruckersville, Elbert County, Ga., in time to attend the meeting of the Sarepta Association held at Van's Creek church Oct. 21, 24, 1820."

CHAPTER XVII—Mercer University—Page 276.

"Mr. Sherwood was acquainted with fifteen or twenty of the Governors of Georgia, was the personal friend of nineteen United States Senators from Georgia. . . . He was acquainted with Dozier Thornton, who was born in Virginia in 1755 and came to Georgia in 1784, and whom he styles 'One of the most eminent ministers of the State,' with Thomas Maxwell who resided in Elbert County, who was imprisoned in Virginia for preaching the Gospel, and who, notwithstanding, preached through the bars of his jail to the crowds standing without, inflicting on his long nose wounds, the scars of which he carried to his grave, in 1837, at the advanced age of ninety-seven."

"In 1837 I gave notice through the INDEX that I was collecting materials for a 'History of Georgia Baptists' . . . In 1839 I issued proposals. . . the subscribers were about three hundred and fifty. . . not enough to justify the undertaking; so when about to remove to this region (Washington City) I committed the 'History of Associations and Church,' brought up to 1840 to Jesse H. Campbell."

Adiel Sherwood, D.D. born 1791, son of Adiel Sherwood, Sr. was educated Middlebury College, Vermont, Union College at Schenectady, N.Y.; and Andover College where he kept Journals. In 1818 his health failed and he went to Savannah on a trip to recuperate. . . stayed in Georgia; was ordained at Bethesda Church, Green Co., Ga.; was a teacher, minister and college president. In 1825 he taught in the neighborhood of his plantation in Green Co., Ga.; and preached at New Hope Church, Oglethorpe Co., Ga.; Freeman's Creek in Clark Co., Ga.; and at Greensboro, Ga. In 1828 resided at Eatonton, Ga. In 1829 his churches were those at Eatonton, Milledgeville, and Macon (while still living in Green Co., Ga.). Was Professor of Learned Languages and Biblical Literature at Columbian College, Washington City, Mercer University, President of Shurleff College, Ill.; in 1856 returned to Ga. for a time; died at St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 19, 1879 in his 88th year.

Married first, May 1821, Mrs. Anne Adams (Smith) Early, widow of Hon. Peter Early, Gov. of Ga. She died 1822. Was daughter of Francis and Lucy Smith of Essex Co., Va. Married 2nd Emma Heriot, daughter of Roger Heriot of Charleston, S. C.

Biographical Sketch of Prominent Baptists, pages 475-476-477, Adiel Sherwood—The Christian Index.

"He was on terms of personal friendship with all the most noted Baptist ministers of Ga. from 1818 to the close of the war, beginning with A. Marshall; Dozier Thornton; Thomas Maxwell, etc.

Adiel Sherwood published either a paper or magazine called "Gazeteer of Georgia" 1837, also there was another publication of his, "Sherwood's Collection of Historical Papers," published in Washington, D. C.; or as Dr. David Benedict called it in his Georgia History, "Manuscript History of Georgia."

From—Campbell's Baptist History—page 161.

"Thomas Maxwell was born in Virginia and was a prisoner during the reign of persecution. He preached much through the gates of his prison and in his anxiety to see his congregation, bruised his nose against the iron bars until it would bleed. He settled in Elbert County, Georgia and had charge of Changie* and Hendrys Churches. He died, age 97" (95 was the correct age however).

*This was probably Chauga as we have been unable to place a Changie Church.

From—"Historical Collection of Georgia"—page 439.

Elbert County

"Among the first settlers were—Dr. Bible, William Bowen, A. Brown, who, we understand, has a son now living who has twenty children, eight of whom were girls. William Barnett, Billy Allen, James Bell, P. M. Wyche, Joseph Deadwyler, Rev. Mr. White, Rev. D. Thornton, Thomas Maxwell, Richard Tyner, William Key, William Gaines, John Watkins, J. Higgenbotham, Col. Jack, Peter Oliver, William Rucker, Mr. Highsmith, P. Duncan, William Haley, William Ward, E. Shackelford, William Wood, Mr. Lindsey, S. Heard, B. Oliver, J. Cason, William Brown, L. Rice, William Moss, E. Ragland, William Tate, J. Howard, S. Nelson, Thos. Burton, Isham Thompson, William Hodge, S. Wilson, T. A. Carter."

"The instances of longevity in this county have been numerous. A few years ago there were living, William Trammell, 83, Leonard Rae, 81, John Daniel, 80, John Davis, 87, David Carter, 82, Thomas Maxwell, a minister and Revolutionary Soldier, 97."

From—Our Old Churches—Written by a local historian, Mrs. Guy Rucker, and printed in the Elberton Star on Friday, May 27, 1938:

"Rev. Thomas Gilbert had 'Lately come from North Carolina'; Rev. Sanders Walker and Rev. Thomas Maxwell from Virginia. The church was now in a position to form a Presbytery and constitute a living church. Dozier Thornton was a Baptist as also were Gilbert and Walker; as to the faith in the soul of Rev. Thomas Maxwell there can be no doubt—when he was thrown into prison in Virginia for disturbing the peace on the streets, with preaching the pernicious doctrine of Anna-Baptists. Mr. Maxwell preached right on through the bars of his prison. In his exercise he wore off the end of his nose against the bars."

FALLING CREEK BAPTIST CHURCH—Elbert Co., Ga.

"In October 1788, Rev. Dozier Thornton established Dove's Creek Baptist Church, four miles west of Elberton, and in 1793 Thomas

Maxwell was the moving spirit in the raising of Falling Creek Baptist Church, which is still flourishing three miles south of Elberton, Ga.

Thomas Maxwell, while a resident of Virginia, was a number of times imprisoned for preaching the doctrine of the Baptist faith, but he was dauntless in his determination. On one occasion while in prison, after the manner of St. Paul, he converted the keeper of his jail together with his entire family. Thomas Maxwell not only fought the arm of the devil with fiery zeal, but played a conspicuous part in the American Revolution. It is a family tradition that he rubbed away a portion of his prominent nose by preaching through the bars of his cell. Reverend Thomas Maxwell was born September 8, 1742 and died Dec. 12, 1837"—Page 52.

THOMAS MAXWELL AND GEORGIA BAPTIST CHURCHES

"Thomas Maxwell moved to Elbert County, Georgia and in 1793 we find him taking part in the ordination of a preacher, according to J. H. Campbell's 'Georgia Baptists . . . Historical and Biographical' (1874) page 179.

Wm. Davis Ordination

"In 1788 he was licensed to preach the gospel while yet in his native state (Virginia) and was ordained in Georgia by Dozier Thornton and Thomas Maxwell in 1793."

HOLLY SPRINGS BAPTIST CHURCH—ELBERT CO., GA.

In 1795 Thomas Maxwell was member of a presbytery that constituted the Holly Springs Baptist Church, according to J. S. Christian's "Historical Sketch in the Minutes of the Hebron Association" (Georgia) 1900.

"Holly Springs is situated in the extreme northwestern portion of Elbert County, Georgia. Probably the third oldest church in Elbert County, having been first organized as an arm of Dove's Creek on May 9, 1795, and on Feb. 6, 1796 was constituted with twenty-one members and declared to be an independent church by a presbytery consisting of John Cleveland, John White and Thomas Maxwell."

Falling Creek was constituted 1791.

“From this Historical Sketch we learn that Rev. John Doss filled out the first year of this church 1795, followed by Rev. Thomas Maxwell who served it thirty years.”

“In 1816 the question of church expenses was discussed in conference and in 1816 the pastor Rev. Thomas Maxwell received $16.00 for his service.”

“Holly Springs has ordained five preachers, as follows: Thomas Maxwell, date not mentioned, Daniel White in 1802; Elijah Moseley, in 1807; Asa Duncan, in 1852; and W. J. Bryan in 1864.”

“Holly Springs is now (1900) one hundred and five years old, and has been served by eleven pastors, twenty-one deacons and fifteen clerks, as follows: Pastors—Rev. John Doss filled out first year, 1795; Rev. Thomas Maxwell served thirty years; Rev. John Bramlet, five years; Rev. Samuel Hyner, four years; Rev. Asa Chandler, twenty years; Rev. Benjamin Thornton, five years; Rev. Asa Duncan, seventeen years; Rev. W. J. Vickery, fifteen years and Rev. E. R. Goss, the present pastor, is serving his first year (1900).”

Among the deacons are the names of W. T. Maxwell and J. T. Higginbotham—among the clerks is the name of Singleton A. Maxwell.

RECORDS OF HOLLY SPRINGS BAPTIST CHURCH

The following named members of the church of the Baptist order called Dove's Creek* met according to appointment at Holly Springs Meeting House, May 9, 1795, and according to a request granted by the said Dove's Creek Church formed themselves into an arm of said church to hold conference and open a door to receive members present.

Members Present:

Male	Female
Henry Duncan, Deacon	Joanna Duncan
Daniel Parker, Deacon	Ruth Rucker
Leonard Rice	Sara Harbin
Pearson Duncan	Priscilla Merit
John Duncan, Sr.	Bella—a black woman
John Rodgers
The above members sat in conference and—

*Dove's Creek established 1788, by Rev. Dozier Thornton.

1. Received by baptism three members . . . Daniel White, and Martha White, his wife, and Martha Nelms.

2. Made choice of Bro. John Doss (Minister) as our supply and Barnabas Pace, clerk.

Holly Springs, Saturday, Jan. 3, 1796.

Met in conference, Bro. Doss, Moderator.

On motion, agreed to petition a presbytery to aid in our constitution as we think it expedient to organize ourselves as a regular church at this place.

Resolved to petition Brethern John Cleveland, John White and Thomas Maxwell.

Saturday, Feb. 6, 1796.

Met in conference and Brethern John Cleveland, John White and Thomas Maxwell, according to request of the members present, formed a presbytery to aid them in forming a constitution, which they did as expressed in the following certificate. . . .

Georgia, Elbert Co., Feb. 6, 1796.

This is to certify that whereas an arm of Dove's Creek Church collected on the waters of Beaverdam at Holly Springs Meeting House, have agreed to keep house together, called a presbytery to look into the standing and the presbytery, having met according to request and after making all necessary inquiry, finding them ripe for constitution, we give them to the Lord and each other, their number being twenty-one, with an ordained minister and one deacon and strength sufficient with the help of God to carry on discipline, the presbytery pronounced them a church and proceeded to give them the right hand of fellowship.

John Cleveland

John White

Thomas Maxwell. . . Presbytery.

Saturday, July 1st, 1796.

The church met in conference and on motion, went into the choice of a pastor and Bro. John Doss was chosen by majority and resolved to petition Bro. John Cleveland, John White and Thomas Maxwell, to form a presbytery to install Bro. John Doss, Pastor.

Saturday, May 1, 1797.

The church met in conference, on motion the church agrees to look out for a pastor. Bro. Thomas Maxwell was proposed; laid over the choice till next conference.

Saturday, June 3, 1797.

The church met in conference, Bro. Doss was chosen Moderator, took up the reference with regards to the choice of a pastor and proceeded to the choice, and Brother Thomas Maxwell was chosen. The church appointed Bro. Daniel White to inform Bro. Maxwell of the choice of the church and requests him to give an answer at the next conference.

Saturday, July 1, 1797.

The church at Holly Springs met in conference, chose Bro. Maxwell, Moderator.

1. The church took into conference the choice of a pastor and Bro. Maxwell still appeared to be the choice of the church to which he gave his consent to leave the matter with God and the Presbytery which they might call.

2. The church petitioned Brethern Dozier Thornton and John White from the church at Vans Creek and John Cleveland from Shoal Creek and Wm. Davis and John Doss from Dove's Creek, to form a Presbytery to install Bro. Thomas Maxwell, Pastor; the Presbytery to meet on the 2nd of September next and Bro. Daniel White to forward the petition.

Sat., Sept. 2, 1797.

The church met in conference.

1. The Presbytery consisted of John White, John Doss and Wm. Cook, proceeded to install Thomas Maxwell Pastor of Holly Springs Church to go in and out before them according to gospel order.

Sat., Oct. 3, 1797.

The church met in conference, Bro. Maxwell, Moderator, and proceeded to business.

1. Appointed Bro. Maxwell a delegate to Association.

Sat., March 31, 1798.

The church met in conference and received Bro. James Maxwell and Sister Charity Carr by letter.

Sat., July 6, 1799.

A proposition was made to authorize a part of the members of the church to sit at Double Branch Meeting House as a Church so far as to open a door and receive members, either by letter or experience when they have an assistance of an ordained minister.

Sat., Aug. 3, 1799.

Took up the reference of last conference relative to the arm of the Double Branch having liberty to receive members either by letter or baptism, the church decided that they should not have the liberty.

Sat., June 6, 1801.

The arm of this church at Double Branch petitioned for constitution which was granted. . . .

James Maxwell was charged of disorder and two brethren appointed to cite him to the next conference.

Sat., July 4, 1801.

Took up the charge against Bro. James Maxwell but one witness appeared and the matter was laid over till next meeting.

Sat., Aug. 1, 1801.

Took up the case of Bro. James Maxwell and laid over till next conference.

Sat., Sept. 5, 1801.

Took up the case of Bro. James Maxwell, received a letter from the church at Chauga which states in evidence that Bro. James Maxwell had at sundry times drunk too much ardent spirits and had made use of harsh language about some of his neighbors and appeared not to be willing to pay his just debts from his having refused to come to settlement with Bro. Flower Swift. After some discussion Bro. James Maxwell was excluded from the church.

Sat., May 2, 1802.

Bro. John White, Thomas Maxwell and the Traveling Brother Thompson formed a Presbytery and proceeded to ordination of Bro. Daniel White to the office of a minister of the gospel and Bro. Luke White to the office of a dean.

Friday-Saturday, Aug., 30 and 31, 1805.

The church proceeded to nominate the messengers to the Association and Brethern Thomas Maxwell and Elijah Mosely were nominated. . . . On Sunday the Lord's Supper was administered and washing feet attended to Saturday, Sept. 30, 1815.

A charge was laid against Bro. Joel Maxwell for drunkenness.

Sat., Nov. 5, 1815.

Bro. Joel Maxwell came forward and gave satisfaction to the Church.

March 2, 1816.

SHOAL CREEK, FRANKLIN COUNTY, GEORGIA
CHAUGA CHURCH, OCONEE COUNTY, S. C.

From: "South Carolina Baptist 1670-1805."

By Leah Townsend.

Permission to quote given by author.

"The beginning of the church in the Oconee Co., section of what was formerly Pendleton District was in the main closely connected with Shoal Creek, a congregation of Franklin Co., Ga. The first entry in the earliest extant Shoal Creek Church Book is dated Jan. 1796, and reads: 'The Church met according to appointment,' which implies constitution prior to that date, at the latest sometime in 1795. At that time Rev. John Cleveland was pastor and Charles Bond clerk."

"Coneross continued as an arm of Shoal Creek until Sept. 1798, when it petitioned the parent church for separate constitution, the congregation having been known previously as 'Cobb and Kilpatrick Meeting House.' The committee appointed to attend consisted of Thomas Gilbert, John Doss, and Rev. John Cleveland while Thomas Maxwell and Dozier Thornton were asked to attend at Coneross at any time that congregation appointed."

"Besides John Cleveland, the regular pastor, and Thomas Maxwell (or Maxfield) and Dozier Thornton, who frequently preached, the church put forward for ordination, Francis Calloway in 1801 and Charles S. Morton in 1803." Pages 231-232-234.

"Shoal Creek entered the Sarepta Association in 1796. In 1800 membership of two hundred and twelve was greatly increased by the revival in the next four years. The center of the congregation had shifted in the meantime as to necessitate the removal of the constitution and church book to South Carolina and the adoption of the name Chauga Church in Jan. 1811. Chauga is located about halfway between Westminster and Chauga Creek."

List of members of Shoal Creek (Chauga) Church 1796-1804. Spelled as in the church book, included.

Thomas Maxwell (Maxfield)
James Maxfield.
Doser Thornton.

Also many other early Elbert County names as Adams, Allen, Bond, Cleveland, Gaar, Clark, etc.

Shoal Creek is still in existence in Hart Co., Ga. (Originally Franklin Co.), about four miles from Lavonia, Ga., about 12 to 15 miles from Hartwell, Ga. Chauga Church, Pendleton District, S. C. is about 30 or 40 miles from Shoal Creek.

Sarepta Association founded 1799; Thomas Gilbert, Moderator 1799-1802. Dozier Thornton, Moderator 1803-1818. Reuben Thornton, Moderator 1826-1828. Reference: Minutes of Sarepta Association.

It will be interesting to note throughout the genealogy how many of the descendants of Thomas Maxwell have become ministers.

THOMAS MAXWELL'S BIBLE

The following is a copy of the title page of the Bible which belonged to Thomas Maxwell.

"Stereotype Edition, The Holy Bible. Containing the Old and New Testaments; Translated out of the Original Tongues—and with the Former Translations Diligently Compared and Revised with Canne's Marginal Notes and References. To which are Added An Index;

An Alphabetical Table of All the Names in the Old and New Testament, with their Significations; Table of Scriptures, Weights, Measures and Coins, etc. Printed and Published, Wholesale and Retail at Saratoga Springs, by G. M. Davison 1833." We quote this especially to show since the Bible was printed in 1833 it must have been the one Thomas Maxwell used in his later years and in which he or his children kept the family dates.

Elijah Maxwell, son of Thomas and Mary (Pemberton) Maxwell, died before his wife Elizabeth (Betsy Jordan) Maxwell. Then she lived with her daughter Martha (Maxwell) Ham. When she died the Maxwell Bible went to Charlie Ham. When he left to make his home in Texas he left the Bible with his sister, Jane (Ham) Cordell, a great-granddaughter of Thomas and Mary (Pemberton) Maxwell.

This Bible has been taken to several Maxwell reunions and has been loaned to several people. On Sept. 2, 1832, Annie Norman and Annie Lou Maxwell called on Mrs. Lou Cordell (Jane Ham Cordell) and copied the following data from Thomas Maxwell's Bible, in the order in which it was written. As we compared the handwriting we think it was written by Thomas Maxwell himself, and later dates added by members of the families of his sons.

REVEREND THOMAS MAXWELL — REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER

(Roster of Rev. Soldiers in Georgia, by McCall, page 220)

Son of Thomas and Keziah (Blake) Maxwell, Middlesex Co., Va.

Born Sept. 8, 1742 Middlesex Co., Va.

Baptized Dec. 12, 1742, Christ Church Register; Middlesex Co., Va.

Died Dec. 12, 1837 (date from his Bible), Hart, Co., Ga.

Married Mary Pemberton, June 25, 1761 in Va. (D.A.R. Record.)

Born May 1744 in Virginia; died Dec. 18, 1827 in Elbert Co., Ga.

Thomas Maxwell died at the home of his daughter Elizabeth (Maxwell) McMullan (Mrs. William J. McMullan) near Sardis Church, Hart Co., Ga.

Mary Pemberton, born May 1744 in Virginia, thought to be of the King William Co., Va. Pembertons. The records of King William Co., were burned in 1855 so we were unable to get more definite data on the Pembertons. Bishop Meade attributed the American origin of the family to the Huguenot Immigration of 1700. The name was spelled Penbreton in the early days, which suggests a Breton ancestry. "The King William Pembertons were noted for their education and wealth. They owned fine properties and were substantial and highly regarded citizens. The family is now widely scattered through the South and West.”

Quoted from, “Old King William, Homes and Families”

By Peyton N. Clarke.

Mary Pemberton died Dec. 18, 1827 in their home in Elbert Co., Georgia. Thomas Maxwell and Mary (Pemberton) Maxwell were buried in the Maxwell Cemetery 315 Centerville District Elbert Co., Ga., where the present day descendants have marked their graves with a double granite tombstone. (By error the name Pemberton was spelled Pendleton.)

- XI. Elizabeth Maxwell, born Sept. 25, 1791, died Jan. 29, 1862, married Wm. McMullan Sept. 3, 1812 Elbert Co., Ga.

Names and dates from Thomas Maxwell’s Bible in the possession of Mrs. Lou Cordell (Jane Ham Cordell) a great-granddaughter of Thomas and Mary (Pemberton) Maxwell, who lives near Liberty Church, Elbert County, Georgia.

Thomas Maxwell and John Maxwell were tax payers in a list recorded in Culpeper County, Virginia in 1783-1787. Rapidan Baptist Church is on the border line of Culpeper County, but is located in Orange County, Virginia, from whence Thomas Maxwell went to Elbert County, Georgia.

Thomas Maxwell was clerk of Radipan Church in Orange County, Va. Mrs. LeRoy Berry Clerk at the Rapidan Church in 1953, says "Earliest records we have dated Oct. 17, 1790 shows that Thomas Maxwell was church clerk from Oct. 7, 1790 to March 17, 1792." Sat., May 1791 list Brother Maxwell chosen Moderator. It seems that Thomas Maxwell was Moderator from May 1791 to June 1791 at which time he assumed the clerkship at the church, which he held until March 17, 1792.

Benson Henry was bondsman to John Maxwell and Agatha Henry when they married in Orange Co., Va., St. Thomas's Parish, Feb. 6, 1792. Benson Henry and John Maxwell were testators to deed of Thomas Carter in Elbert Co., Ga. May 31, 1792. (Hist. Col. of Ga. Vol. 3, page 152.) Benjamin Henry, the first child of Benson and Keziah (Maxwell). Henry was born in Elbert Co., Ga., June 27, 1794 James Maxwell was bondsman for Thomas Maxwell and Dully Henry when they married in Orange Co., Va. St. Thomas's Parish April 3, 1792.

So, Thomas Maxwell and his family of eleven children must have left Orange Co., Va. for Elbert Co., Ga. between April 3, and May 31, 1792. From the births as recorded in the Bible of Thomas and Mary (Pemberton) Maxwell the children's ages at that time were as follows:

John Maxwell, 29 years old; married Agatha Henry Feb. 6, 1792.
 Keziah Maxwell, 26 years old; married to Benson Henry 1792.
 Thomas Maxwell, 24 years old; married Dully Henry April 3, 1792
 James Maxwell, 21 years old.
 Elijah Maxwell, 19 years old.
 William Maxwell, 17 years old.
 Jesse Maxwell, 12 years old.
 Joel Maxwell, 10 years old.
 Sarah Maxwell, 6 years old.
 Jeremiah Maxwell, 3 years old.
 Elizabeth Maxwell, less than a year old.

The pioneer spirit led many Virginians to go to Georgia where they received "head rights" in the ceded government lands. The Roster of Revolutionary Soldiers of Georgia, published by the D. A. R. says, "Ceded Lands of Georgia." In the year 1774 Gov. Wright opened a Land Court in Georgia, where the Broad River joins the Savannah. A stockade was built for protection from the Indians. On June 11, 1774 he issued a proclamation stating that the lands would be surveyed and parcelled out in tracts of 100 to 1,000 acres. To the head of family was to be sold 100 acres; for each child 50 acres; and 50 acres for the wife. "In 1792 Georgia gave bounty grants of land $287\frac{1}{4}$ acres and more to officers, to Revolutionary Soldiers to induce them to settle in Georgia." (Page 11.)

1. JOHN MAXWELL (2), son of Rev. Thomas and Mary (Pemberton) Maxwell, born May 9, 1763, in Va. (date from Rev. Thomas Maxwell's Bible). Died Oct. 5, 1840, Milton Co., Ga. (now Fulton). Buried in Maxwell Cemetery 2 miles southwest of Alpharetta, Ga. Grave marked by Nancy Hart Chapter D. A. R. Milledgeville, Ga. Married Agatha "Agnes" Henry, Feb. 6, 1792 St. Thomas's Parish, Orange Co., Va., Geo. Eve Parson: bondsman, Benson Henry, who married Keziah Maxwell, sister of John Maxwell, (date from marriage bond, Orange Co., Va., also from "Marriages in Orange Co., Va.," (by W. W. Scott, Va. Magazine of History and Biography Vol. 26, page 301).

Agatha "Agnes" Henry, born March 22, 1770 in Va. Daughter of William and Thomason (Benson) Henry of Madison Co., Va. Died Dec. 1, 1851, (date from tombstone), buried in old Maxwell Cemetery about 1½ miles southeast of Kellyton, Coosa Co., Ala., first grave in the cemetery and marked "Agnes Maxwell." The cemetery is on the land which was once Jake Maxwell's, and is about ½ mile off the main highway between Kellyton and Alexander City, Ala.

John Maxwell and his father Thomas Maxwell were taxpayers in the list recorded in Culpeper Co., Va., for 1783-1787. He and his wife Agatha "Agnes" (Henry) Maxwell came to Elbert Co., Ga., with his father in the spring of 1792, soon after he was married.

John Maxwell was a Revolutionary Soldier (see Roster of Revolutionary Soldiers in Georgia, by McCall, pages 219-220). Received 2 land draws in the Land Lottery of 1827, Major David Dobb's Battalion, Capt. Horton's District. (From Land Court Records of 1821-1832 Elbert County, Georgia.)

In the early Elbert County Records we find:

1. Folio 89, John Maxwell and Benson Henry were testators to deed from Thomas Carter to Thomas Fortson for 330 acres of land May 31, 1792.
2. John Maxwell, Jacob Higginbotham, Sr. and Nathan Bond were appraisers to inventory of Hannah Duskin, deceased May 10, 1819. (Will Book "L" page 309.)
3. John Maxwell, Joel Maxwell and William McMullan were Executors to Thomas Maxwell's will 1838, will signed Dec. 27, 1833. William P. Maxwell was a witness to the will.

John and Agatha "Agnes" (Henry) Maxwell went to Milton Co., Ga., to live with their son William and wife Sarepta (Rucker) Maxwell about 1839-40.

The descendants have a letter written by John Maxwell in Elbert Co., Ga. to his son Benson Maxwell in Talbot Co., Ga. Dated July 9, 1839.

Following is a copy of the letter.

Georgia, Elbert County, July 9th., 1839.

Our Dear and loving children, we once more will try to write you a few lines enforming you that we are still living in this troublesome world. The family is not all well. Cl . . . has been afflicted with one complaint or another so that she has been under the doctor the greater part of the time ever since the first of January and is not well yet, she appears to be a little on the mend the doctor thinks, he says, she will get well.

We have nothing that is much worth your reading to write you. Our crops are sorry, we have been so dry in Elbert that the appearance in many places at this time looks like making very little.

Bro. D. Thornton came to see us yesterday. He tells us you was all in common health, which we was very glad to hear, we have been looking for a letter from some of you tho you may think that we are not worth writing to, well we grant that we are of but little acount, we are your parents and would like to hear from you very often while we live in this world. You can see what a task it is for me to write. I should write many times was it not the case with me. We do wish you would consider what poor old lonesome folks we are and to hear from our children is a great stimaler to us, you must think. We have heard from your brother W. P. Maxwell and family very lately and also from Isham Teasley and his family. All was well a few days since, They have tolerable good crops it is thought if the season continues good that W. P. will make 300 barrels of corn this year; his wheat was not as good as it was last year nor his oats. We had a letter from your Bro. Cimmeon dated the 20th of April. They were in good health at that time. He complains very much about his kindred in Georgia not writing to him. He writes times is very hard in his state on account of money being so scarce, so many people in debt, he is loosing he fears, some thousand of dollares. We have not heard anything from Clary or Betsy and Ann for some time.

Bro. Thornton can tell you of the time here better than I can write. You will send us a letter before long, you must let Reuben's family read this letter. We send our best love and respects to all enquiring friends, so we conclude ever remaining your loving parents farewell.

John and A. Maxwell

Addressed to Mr. Benson Maxwell, Talbotton, Georgia.

Following John Maxwell's death in 1840 his wife Agnes (Henry) Maxwell went to Alabama to live with her son Reuben Maxwell and his wife Elizabeth (Thornton) Maxwell, where she died in 1851.

John and Agatha "Agnes" (Henry) Maxwell had nine children.

REUBEN MAXWELL (3); JOHN (2); REV. THOMAS (1).

Gen. 3.

(II). REUBEN MAXWELL (3), second son of John and Agatha "Agnes" (Henry) Maxwell, born Nov. 4, 1795, Elbert County, Georgia. Died May 31, 1861, Tallapoosa Co., Ala. Interred in Old Maxwell Cemetery, on his old plantation $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles S. E. of Kellyton, Ala. Married Elizabeth Thornton Dec. 16, 1821, by Rev. Dozier Thornton. (Marriage Records 1816-1824, Will Book "L" page 478 Elbert Co., Ga.) Born Dec. 15, 1801 Elbert Co., Ga. Died June 12, 1883, Tallapoosa Co., Ala. Interred by the side of her husband. Elizabeth Thornton was the daughter of Reuben and Elizabeth (Allen) Thornton. (See Allied Families, Thornton—Allen.)

"Reuben Maxwell moved to Talbot Co., Ga., in 1833, where he lived until 1844; then moved to Tallapoosa Co., Ala. He was owner of hundreds of slaves and acquired a great deal of wealth during his lifetime in Ala. Reuben Maxwell's plantation was about $\frac{1}{4}$ mile off the main highway between Kellyton and Alexander City, Alabama."

"The Maxwell Cemetery, Tallapoosa Co., Ala., is kept up by a fund left by Jake Maxwell. He had an attractive iron fence placed around the graves of the members of the Maxwell family. This spot was once in the garden of Reuben and Elizabeth (Thornton) Maxwell.

Reuben Maxwell was sitting at the dinner table when he was stricken with a heart attack. He was greatly loved by his children, particularly his daughter Virginia.

"Elizabeth (Thornton) Maxwell was an attractive woman, loved and honored by her grandchildren." (By Virginia Turner.)

"Elizabeth Thornton Maxwell. I greatly loved her because when my mother died seven weeks after my birth, my grandmother took me and cared for me until I was five or six years old. I greatly love her blessed memory until this good day. Her father was Reuben Thornton of Muscogee Co., Ga., and her mother was a Miss Allen. She had three brothers, namely: Thomas, Reuben, and William. Two sisters Prescilla and Ann. The Thorntons of Barbour Co., Ala., are her family." From data by Jake Maxwell, 1925.

Reuben and Elizabeth (Thornton) Maxwell had eleven children; six sons and five daughters.

Children:

Daughter of Jacob and Nancy (Hayes) Thomas Carreker of Talbot Co., Ga., married 2nd Elizabeth Walker Aug. 1852 of Taylor Co., Ga., who died January 30, 1890.

"Allen Thornton Maxwell was a man of rare good sense, a successful and a public spirited citizen. In 1860 he was elected to the Alabama Legislature as a Whig and was therefore in public life in the stormiest period of Alabama's history. He believed in the preservation of the Union, but when seceded he threw his whole soul and means into the cause of the Confederacy. The state of his health prevented him from entering actively into the military service, but he wanted to be represented on the firing line, so he hired a man to do this, and this long before he would be called upon to enter the service. He fed hundreds of women and children whose husbands were in the army." From: Jake Maxwell's data.

Allen Thornton and Cynthia Susan (Carreker) Maxwell had two sons and one daughter.

"Willis Martin Maxwell moved to Coosa Co., Ala., in 1844. He was a man of fair education, splendid physique and personal address. He commanded the attention and respect of any crowd he entered. He had just started in life when the war came on, but at the call of his country he laid aside the plow and hoe, for he was a farmer, and answered the call by enlisting in the 74th Alabama Regiment as Lieutenant, where he served with distinction. He was afterwards promoted to quartermaster and later detailed to raise rations for the army in the field. The war over he gathered remnants of what was left and started life again. He was making splendid headway when shattered in health, he fell prey to heart trouble and died Feb. 26, 1871. Loved and honored as one of nature's noblemen." From, Jake Maxwell data 1925.

"Enlisted early in the Confederate cause and belonged to the bodyguard of the great and gallant Sidney Johnson who fell at Shiloh. His slave who was with him at death brought his body back to Coosa Co., Ala., in a one horse wagon. Imagine that, during those trying years of no roads or highways, and the Yankees right behind him. It seems a cruel fate that this young man should have been in the thickest of the fight on that bloody field, for days, where he won honors worthy of promotion, came out unscratched and immediately sickened and died." (From data by Jake Maxwell 1925.)

Married Mary Massengale Sept. 13, 1898 Coosa Co., Ala. Born June 29, 1869 Milam Co., Texas. Daughter of Alfred Madison and Caroline (Lovelace) Slay Massengale. Through her mother she was descended from Col. Ninean Beall of Maryland, who was called the "Father of Presbyterianism in America." She attended Round Rock Institute, Round Rock, Texas, Ward Seminary (now Ward-Belmont) Nashville, Tenn. where she majored in art. She is a member of Jane Douglas Chapter D.A.R. Dallas, Texas. Home: 4441 Gloster Road, Dallas, Texas.

Letter written by Virginia Maxwell McKinney to her son, Eugene while he was in Medical School are beautifully worded, expressing her love and confidence in him. They are in possession of her granddaughter Virginia McKinney Turner, Dallas, Texas.

A friend wrote of Dr. Eugene Patrick McKinney, in the Texas State Medical Journal, "His charity consisted not in the mere giving of alms alone, but in supplying words, and acts of comfort, of counsel, and of cheer to those whose lives could be brighter thereby. In dying he left a legacy which cannot be taken away, nor lessened by passage of time. Sweet memories of a life and character that were given to deeds of kindness that made the world grow better."

Children:

MAXWELL FAMILY REUNION

Talbotton New Era

Talbotton, Georgia
Thursday, June 27, 1946

The descendants and relatives of Rev. Simeon and Sarah Elizabeth (Stinson) Maxwell; Mr. and Mrs. John and Martha (Greer) Maxwell, and Mr. and Mrs. (Mary Maxwell) and John B. Robins, gathered Sunday June 16th, for a family reunion at the community house in Talbotton.

Mr. Z. Thomas Maxwell was guest of honor, being the only surviving member of Rev. Simeon Maxwell's family, one of Georgia's oldest families and prominent in church work. A red satin ribbon denoting life and love was pinned over his heart.

The dining room was decorated with arrangement of gladioli, dahlias and giant zinnias. A large cake, beautifully decorated with pink roses was given by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilson and presented by Mrs. Jane Maxwell Faircloth.

Mrs. Walter (Ella Searcy) Maxwell was the oldest member present, and Miss Wilma Eloise Maxwell, age six weeks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Maxwell, was the youngest. Mrs. Jane Maxwell Faircloth was the youngest grandmother, and Mrs. Carter Maxwell Koart was the latest bride.

Lunch was served at one o'clock, Mr. Z. Thomas Maxwell returning thanks and asked His blessing upon those gathered. The afternoon was happily spent recalling events of yesteryear and cousins renewing acquaintance with cousins, unseen since childhood. The motion to make the reunion an annual occasion was met with unanimous approval.

Members of the family present were: Mr. and Mrs. Z. Thomas Maxwell, Mrs. Jane Maxwell Faircloth, William Maxwell Faircloth, Barnesville, Georgia. Mrs. W. Louis Taylor and Mrs. L. P. Longino, Milledgeville, Georgia. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. N. Gibson, Jr., Misses Roselynde and Frances Gibson, Red Springs, N. C. Mr. Walter Stinson, and Miss Mary Stinson, Miss Linton Maxwell, Mr. Jack Maxwell, Mrs. Eudie Sewell Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Sewell Maxwell and family; Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Stallings; Misses Jessie and Ella Robins; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Baldwin, Mrs. Ella Searcy Maxwell, all of Talbotton, Ga. Mrs. W. C. Hudson, Milton, Fla. Mrs. Berta Stinson, Mr. Oscar Stinson, Geneva, Ga. Mr. and Mrs. William S. Maxwell, Butler, Ga. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stinson, Columbus, Ga.

Hosts and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. Sewell Maxwell, Mrs. Baker Baldwin, Mrs. L. M. Stallings; Mrs. Eudie Sewell Maxwell, Misses Ella and Jessie Robins; Miss Linton Maxwell; Mrs. W. C. Hudson; Miss Mary Stinson and Mr. J. H. Stinson.

2. Rev. Simeon Maxwell (4), son of Benson and Elizabeth B. (Johnston) Maxwell, born Dec. 14, 1829, Elbert Co., Ga. (date from father's Bible.) Died Dec. 14, 1896 Talbot County, Ga. Married Sarah Elizabeth Stinson Nov. 30, 1854 by John Harris Minister. Daughter of John and Ermie (Oliver) Stinson, Talbot Co., Ga. Born April 17, 1836; died 1902, Talbot Co., Ga. Both buried in old Maxwell Cemetery near Talbotton, Ga.

"Simeon Maxwell, Baptist Minister, son of Benson and Elizabeth B. (Johnston) Maxwell, moved to Talbot Co., Ga. in 1833 from Elberton, Ga. After his education was complete, began teaching. First he was associate principal and afterwards president of Hamilton Female College, Harris County, Ga. In Dec. 1858 he left his native state, and with his family settled in Conecuh Co., Ala. The following year he was chosen deacon of the New Hope Church. His fame as a teacher had preceded him, and in 1860, he was induced to become principal of the Evergreen High School. The desire to proclaim the gospel however, seem still to have had a prominent place in his heart, and his brethren feeling that he would be useful, licensed him to preach, which he did until 1864. The church of which he was a member called him to be their pastor. He continued as their pastor until 1869 when he was stricken with malarial fever. It was thought best by his family that he should return to Georgia and settle in his home, which he did and was immediately chosen pastor of the church at Talbotton. Simeon is the great-grandson of Thomas Maxwell, who was a Baptist preacher in the days of persecution in Virginia, who was taken from the pulpit and thrust into prison for preaching the Gospel of the Son of God. He moved to Elbert Co., Ga., in the early settling of the county and died when 97 years of age." (From "History of Georgia Baptists," compiled by Christian Index, pages 363-364.)

Rev. Simeon Maxwell represented Talbot County in the Georgia Legislature. 1888-89—1890-91.

Children:

Gen. 5.

(1). John Benson Maxwell (5), son of Simeon and Sarah Elizabeth (Stinson) Maxwell, born Sept. 1, 1855; died May 7, 1909. Married Claudia Hope Howard, Oct. 4, 1894; daughter of Augustus and Anne Jane (Lindsey) Howard. Claudia Howard was born in Ala. June 26, 1860; died April 3, 1900. When quite young, her parents moved to Columbus, Ga., and in their lovely home on Rose Hill, Claudia spent her girlhood. Claudia Maxwell wrote many poems and composed many songs, also the music accompanying them. She was a gifted pianist. Many of her poems and writings were published in the Macon Telegraph, Atlanta Journal, a Railroad Magazine and Saturday Review, from which some of this data is taken. She did active work for the enfranchisement of her sex, and was one of the organizers of the Georgia Woman Suffrage Association. She was a personal friend of Mrs. Carrie C. Catts and Mrs. Susan B. Anthony.

"We shall not soon forget the beautiful picture she made as she stood so bravely in the Speaker's stand in the hall of the House of Representatives in the State Capitol last November and presented strong argument and appeals for equal rights for women. She declared that—"The hand that casts the ballot, is the hand that rules the world." Some of her sallies against the absurdities of creeds have been copied by the press of foreign countries. She earnestly sought after—"the way, the truth and the life." By Mary L. McLendon. (From the Saturday Review Magazine April 14, 1900.) Official Organ. Ga. Div., Daughters of the Confederacy, Atlanta Chapter U. D. C.; Atlanta Woman's Club; Atlanta City Federation; Atlanta Equal Suffrage Association.

1832 from Creek Land Cession Sale.

Catherine Ivey, born Oct. 8, 1829; died Russell Co., Ala. (Dates from Benjamin Henry's Bible.)

Quoted from "Russell County in Retrospect" by Ann Kendrick Walker.

"A pilgrimage was made by Gena Persons Smartt. From her private papers, shortly before her death, she supplied some material for this record. Her first visit was made to an old house which had a strange link with Glennville's early days. It had been built by her grandfather Dr. John Benson Henry in old Glennville, soon after his marriage in 1845 to Catherine Matildy Ivey, whose parents were early settlers. Here Dr. Henry with a diploma from the Transylvania Academy of Medicine, at Lexington, Ky., had settled in the stage coach days. Dr. Henry was of the school of physicians who made Glennville famous and while he practiced for a number years after building his home he died young."

"The Henry House purchased and moved, standing today at Pittsview, about two miles off the highway, has a story of being completely demolished, plank by plank and rebuilt on its present location."

"Everything was moved off by oxcart and mules, no trucks in those days. Sixteen or twenty oxen to a wagon, and seven miles to haul the planks. The Henry House was rebuilt not only with the original materials but exactly like it was first built, wide hall, open fireplace, brick chimney, columns; there it is today, an old Glennville house there at Pittsview. Thus Gena Persons Smartt wandered through her grandfather's house. Over the wide planks of the floors, hand hewn, through the old spacious hall and lingered on in the old parlor. There she noticed a painting in the center of the ceiling and was told that it was a part of the original plaster wall which an Indian had painted, and which had been carefully removed and put in the center of the parlor ceiling." Pages 333, 334.

Dr. John Benson Henry and his wife Catherine (Ivey) Henry both died before their children, two boys and five girls were grown. Only four of their seven children lived to be married.

Land Lottery Register of 1827—Reg. No. 9 18th Day's Draw

Mar. 27, list Wm. P. Henry of Monroe Co., Capt. Finch Dist. No. 255 D. B. Sec. 2.

"In Forsyth on the 18th, of March 1833, died William P. Henry, Esq. Clerk of Superior Court of Monroe Co. A kind and indulgent father and affectionate husband, a sincere friend. His loss will long be felt by the community in which he lived. His amiable qualities and social disposition have endeared him to all with whom he was acquainted; few men have lived more beloved, none have died more regretted. If lines of the poet be true, to none could it be more appropriately applied than to the subject of this sketch. "An Honest Man is the Noblest Work of God." From D.A.R. Records, Rhodes Memorial Library, Atlanta, Georgia.

Land Lottery Register of 1827 Reg. No. 17—39th day's draw, April 20, 1827, lists Elijah Maxwell, Elbert Co., Ga.

Elijah Maxwell was about nineteen years old when he came to Elbert Co., Ga. from Orange Co., Va., with his father, mother, brothers and sisters in the spring of 1792. He and his wife Elizabeth "Betsy" (Jordan) Maxwell lived their entire married life in Elbert Co., Ga. After Elijah Maxwell died, his wife "Betsy" (Jordan) Maxwell lived with their youngest daughter Martha P. (Maxwell) Ham, who inherited the old Maxwell Bible which had belonged to Rev. Thomas and Mary (Pemberton) Maxwell. When Martha P. (Maxwell) Ham died the Bible went to her youngest son Charles Ham, who moved to Texas, leaving the Bible with his sister Jane (Ham) Cordell, who lived near Liberty Church, Elbert Co., Ga., where the dates were copied for this genealogy. All dates marked* were taken from the Thomas Maxwell Bible.

Elijah and Betsy (Jordan) Maxwell had eleven children; five sons and six daughters.

ELIZABETH MAXWELL (3); WILLIAM (2); REV. THOMAS (1).

Gen. 3.

(1). ELIZABETH MAXWELL (3), daughter of William and Jane (Higginbotham) Maxwell, born ca. 1801 Elbert Co., Ga.

Died Jan. 13, 1840 Habersham Co., Ga. Married Ralph Banks, Jr., Dec. 22, 1818. (Will Book Mixed Records Elbert Co., Ga. 1809-24, page 261.) Son of Ralph and Rachel Alston (Jones) Banks; born April 6, 1796; died April 21, 1871 Habersham Co., Ga. (See Allied Families, Banks.)

"She, Elizabeth Maxwell, must have inherited from her Highland forefathers, a love for the 'banks and braes' of her home county as she and her husband alone of the large connections, spent their lives in one locality."

"Elizabeth Maxwell was a good woman, a devoted wife and loving mother." Quoted from "Banks of Elbert," by Sara Banks Walton Franklin.

"Ralph Banks alone of his father's large family remained in the vicinity of Elbert Co., he lived all his married life in Habersham Co., not far from the place of his birth. One who knew him well said 'He lived the life of a devoted Christian, doing good in every way, visiting the sick, relieving the poor and needy, and helping his neighbors by whom he was loved and honored.' It can be said of him, that he had a noble and forgiving nature and was ever ready to make peace and condone the shortcomings of those who had grievously offended him. Amid the old hills of Habersham, his dust mingles with that of his adored wife, whose name he held too sacred to utter after she was taken from him." From "Banks of Elbert." By Banks, Young, Franklin. Page 87. Quoted with permission from author.

Ralph Banks received 2 tracts of land on Leatherwood Creek, Franklin Co., Ga. (Elbert Co., Ga. Will Book "M," page 206. Will of Ralph Banks, Sr.)

(3). William Alexander Rucker (5), son of William Barden and "Sallie" (Maxwell) Rucker, born Jan. 1, 1862 Elbert Co., Ga. Died April 21, 1945, age 83 years. Married Annie Marvin Bailey, Dec. 4, 1901. Born Nov. 11, 1877. Daughter of Newton L. and Sara Ann (Hulme) Bailey.

William Alexander Rucker was clerk of the Superior Court of Elbert Co., from 1901-1945 when he died.

"For more than forty years 'Uncle Billy,' as he was affectionately known by his many friends, has made his home in Elberton, and during the while, like Enoch of old, walked with God, in a world of sin and woe, ever faithful to the precept of his Lord and Master. A militant member of the Methodist church, observing all times its rights and ordinances, effectual and fervent in prayer, eloquent in his exposition of everlasting truths of the Holy Word, his life is and will continue to be an inspiration to the community in which he lived, Blessed are the pure in heart." Quoted from editorial in Elberton Star, Elberton, Ga., April 1945.

Married Eula Beatrice Eavenson, Feb. 5, 1890, at the home of her parents, by J. N. Wall, Minister. (Elbert Co., Marriage Book "E", page 209.) Born July 9, 1872 Elbert Co.,

Ga. Died Nov. 29, 1939 at her home, 242 Church St., Elberton, Ga. Daughter of Willis Jefferson and Mary Arminda (Teasley) Eavenson. Descendant of Rev. Sol. Eli Eavenson. (See Allied Families Eavenson; Thornton; Dozier and Allen.)

"Benson Mansfield Maxwell was the thirteenth child of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Maxwell. Being the child of his 'Mother's Old Age' he was not only peculiarly loved by his parents, but by his brothers and sisters and, in fact, by all of the older grandchildren, for when visiting our grandparents he was always there to add pleasure. He was a model boy and as he grew to manhood he retained that love and tender care for his mother that is affecting to see. Naturally of a reserved nature, for one to appreciate Uncle Benson, they must meet him in private life and then it was as the touch of some flowers reveal their presence and sweetness, that you saw the true man that he was. There it was that one saw the modesty of a woman and the courage of a man combined. I never heard him use language other than the most chaste and it was not pleasant to him for others to do otherwise. He joined the Baptist Church at Bio, Hart Co., Ga. in 1881 and lived a consistent member until his death. In 1890 he married Miss Eula B. Eavenson, and for fourteen years they lived happily together." Quoted from, Wesleyan Christian Advocate, 1903. Written by Rev. William Albert Maxwell.

"Mrs. Eula B. Maxwell widow of Benson M. Maxwell, and daughter of Willis J. Eavenson, a member of a pioneer Elbert Co., family, died at her home on Church St. Wednesday night at 7 o'clock following a long illness. A resident of Elberton for nearly forty years, Mrs. Maxwell was active in Church, Sunday School and Missionary Society; activities of the First Methodist Church, and social and civic life of the city." Quoted from Elberton, Georgia Star, Friday, Dec. 1, 1939. Benson Mansfield and Eula Beatrice (Eavenson) Maxwell were interred in Elmhurst Cemetery, Elberton, Ga.

Graduate, Parsons' School of Design, Paris, France; taught in Art Department, Ga. State College for Women; Assoc. Prof. Home Furnishing Specialist, University of Ill., Urbana, Ill. Professional Interior Decorator New York City. Member of New York Genealogical Society. Member of National Genealogical, Washington, D. C. Compiler of "Maxwell and Allied Families." From the Atlanta Georgian, Sept. 20, 1934, by Mildred Seydell.

"Many years ago, when I was wintering in New York, among other 'young things' studying at Parsons' School of Fine and Applied Arts was a peppy little brunette by the name of Annie Lou Maxwell, from Elberton, Ga. When I came back this year I saw Annie Lou, and learned that she has studied in Paris and London and is now with the famous interior decorator, Bertha Schaeffer, on Fifth Ave. She has done the interiors of some of Park Ave.'s most beautiful homes."

"Decorators Come From Dixie," From a New York Paper, by Willa Gray Martin. New York April 1, 1939.

"Three-fourths of the decorators in New York are southerners. Among the most successful of the band is a mild-mannered, well-groomed Georgian with as southern a name as you'll find in the New York telephone book, Annie Lou Maxwell. The yen for decorating reared its head at an early age and forced her to select a college that went in for serious designing. 'It was the State College in Milledgeville, Ga.' From Milledgeville, the young designer rushed to the New York School of Fine and Applied Art and topped that off with a year in Paris. Back from Paris, Miss Maxwell became a shopper for Bertha Schaeffer, a Mississippian. But soon design assignments began to come her way, and with her collaborator, Maitland B. Lucas, another Georgian, she worked on many thrilling problems. A large apartment in the Ritz Tower for William Randolph Hearst, an apartment for Bill, Jr., on the East River, the yacht 'Sequoia' for President Hoover, sunrooms in Ossinging, boathouses in Greenwich."

After World War II Annie Lou Maxwell decorated a home in Houston, Texas for Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, and in 1952 did an apartment in Washington, D. C. for the Cabinet-ranking woman of the new regime. For Mrs. Matilda Gray of New Orleans she did a home in Guatemala. On Feb. 18, 1954 Annie Lou Maxwell passed away in New York City, and was buried in Elmhurst Cemetery, Elberton, Ga. Poem, by John Oxenham.

"Let me die working.
 Still tackling plans unfinished, tasks undone,
 Clean to it's end, swift may my race run.
 No laggard steps, no faltering, no shirking;
 Let me die working."

LARGE FAMILY HONORS NAME, IN TURN ARE HONORED

Something about the Maxwells — Held Reunion on Last Friday.

By R. A. Turner.

On Thursday, the 5th. of Aug. the descendants and relatives of Thomas Jackson and Anne Banks (Adams) Maxwell met at the residence of Uncle John B. Maxwell in their annual reunion.

And indeed it was a joyful day. Have often thought that I would like to attend these meetings but never had the pleasure of doing so until Thursday. Have never spent a day more pleasantly. All were determined to do everything possible to contribute to the happiness of the other.

Nothing happened all day to mar the pleasure of the occasion. All were advised to bring baskets, and after an excellent little speech by a relative of the family, dinner was announced, and we found the table loaded with food, that proved the skill of the famous cooks of the distinguished family. With no discourtesy to or reflecting on any member of the Maxwell Family, believing them all to be men and women of integrity, I will refer in a brief manner to the family with whom I am by marriage connected. All who remember Thomas Jackson Maxwell will corroborate what I say about him. Grandfather Maxwell died before I became connected with the family and I had limited acquaintance with him personally. I knew him from contact with him and reputation as an unassuming, honest, upright, Christian gentleman. I remember him as a stern, old time gentleman, one who made a lasting impression on you as an unpretentious character in whom you could trust with implicit confidence.

His descendants well represent him in these traits of character and a host of them will find him in the final happy reunion. "Grandmother Annie" as she was affectionately called, with whom I was well acquainted (as she lived several years after I became connected with the family) was one of the most noble characters I ever knew. She, like her husband, was unassuming, gentle, but with her children she was positive, and in matters of business knew nothing but for them to comply with every promise as strictly as if they were of no relation. She has gone to her reward and a host of her descendants are emulating the example, and now and then one drops out of the rank to join her, to wait for the remainder to come over and join in the final glorious reunion of all the good and faithful. In giving the names of the descendants in their order of age, cannot more than give names subject to correction as to speak of the characters of noble men and women of the family would take a book of very large proportion and a writer of superior qualifications and more extensive information than myself.

Following are the family names according to age.

(VIII). JAMES MADISON MAXWELL (3), son of William and Jane "Jennie" (Higginbotham) Maxwell, born Nov. 16, 1813 Elbert Co., Ga. Died Aug. 4, 1864 Banks Co., Ga. Married 1848, Mary "Polly" Tabor born Dec. 17, 1823; died Aug. 17, 1874. Daughter of Isaac and "Abba" Abigail (Wheeler) Tabor. (Marriage Recorded in Franklin Co., Marriage Books, 1900-1812.)

"James Madison was president of the U. S. (1809-1817) when James Madison Maxwell was born. James Madison was graduated from College of New Jersey at Princeton (now Princeton University) in 1771 and returned to his home in Orange Co., Va., where his attention was absorbed by the impending struggle for independence with which he was closely connected in Va. on the subject of religious toleration. Madison took a prominent stand in behalf of the removal of all disabilities, repeatedly appearing in the court of his own county to defend the Baptist nonconformists, was elected from Orange Co. to Va. convention in the spring of 1776, and signalized the beginning of his public career by procuring the passage of an amendment to the Declaration of Rights as prepared by George Mason, substituting for the term 'Toleration' a more emphatic assertion of religious liberty."

From Imprisoned Preachers and Religious Liberty in Virginia by Lewis Peyton Little.

James Madison Maxwell's grandfather, Rev. Thomas Maxwell was imprisoned in the Culpeper Co., Va., jail during the religious persecution. Culpeper was originally a part of Orange Co., Va. Formed from Orange Co., in 1748.

James Madison and Mary (Tabor) Maxwell were buried Phidelta Cemetery, Banks Co., Ga., near his father and mother William and Jane (Higginbotham) Maxwell, also his sister Sara Maxwell Mize and her husband John Mize were buried there. Dates were taken from the tombstones. A double tombstone marks the graves of James Madison and Mary (Tabor) Maxwell.

James Madison and Mary (Tabor) Maxwell had only one child.

“Resolutions of the Commerce, Georgia Presbyterian Church on the death of William Sterling Mize.

“For nearly three score years and ten our dear brother, William S. Mize was permitted to live and bless the world, society and the church of Christ of which he was a devoted member from his manhood. He had been a consistent member of the Presbyterian church for more than thirty-five years. He first filled the office of deacon in the Hebron Church and later in the Commerce Church, after his removal here in 1892. In the year 1898, he was elected, ordained, and installed as a Ruling Elder in the Commerce Presbyterian Church, which office he filled to the day of his death. He died suddenly on the train en route from Florida on Jan. 13, 1920.

“‘Billy’ as he was so familiarly known and lovingly referred to by all of his friends, was a son of John and Sara Maxwell Mize. His father was a brave Confederate Soldier and served with distinction in the celebrated ‘Morgan’s Calvary.’ Mr. Mize was clever and accommodating, jovial and strictly honest in all of his dealings with his fellow men; very devoted to his family and his church. He contributed in more ways to the erection of our present Commerce Church, than any other member of the church. Besides contributing of his money, he gave a large portion of his valuable time in superintending and supervising of this building in which we now worship God.”

John Madison "Mat" and Lola (Wright) Mize were married at the Cotton Exposition in Athens, Ga., in the Fall 1889, in cotton bagging. They were featuring cotton products at the exposition and were trying to get farmers to wrap their bales of cotton in cotton bagging instead of jute bagging. Two couples were given their suits and dresses of cotton bagging plus $100.00 for each couple to be married at the exposition. The suits were made cut-a-way style by expert tailors and the dresses were made by expert seamstresses and really looked nice. The suits are still in existence and have been seen by many present day descendants.

1. William Jesse McMullan (4), born Jan. 30, 1859; died

Fall of 1952. Married Sara Jackson Freeman, Jan. 17, 1889, by Elder N. L. Clark, Newton, Miss. Celebrated their 50th Anniversary Jan. 15, 1939—Sunday.

From Newton, Miss., Record -----.

"Invitations are extended to their friends and relatives to attend an open house from two to four o'clock. The marriage ceremony was performed on Sunday and the celebration will be held on Sunday . . . For their anniversary Mr. and Mrs. McMullan will wear their wedding clothes of fifty years ago. The home they live in is the same one that they went to as bride and groom. Eight children and five grandchildren expect to be present Sunday. The bride of fifty years wore her wedding dress which was in excellent style of that day. The bodice was unusual, but the smocking and draping of the skirt were entirely new to most people present. Her corsage was of golden yellow roses. Mr. McMullan's coat, a genuine Prince Albert, was equally interesting.

"This occasion would not have been complete without Till, an old family negress, who nursed Mr. McMullan when he was a baby. Till was seated in an old family chair and by her was the baby chair, which was the first baby chair the babies of three generations have known."

Information from: William Jesse McMullan 1932. Letters to Annie Lou Maxwell.

(Copy.)

April 11, 1932

Dear Miss Annie Lou Maxwell:

I hope you may get something from the enclosed sheet that you can use in the make-up of your records. If I can get in touch with anyone who can aid in this work I will get all that is to be gotten.

And I hope you can give me the data on your line and the other ones of the Georgia children of Thomas and Mary P. Maxwell.

I had forgotten to tell you Thomas, who married Mary Pember-ton, died in grandmother's home. My father was ten years old and recollected distinctly the things connected with his death.

He had been making his home with grandmother; he died at nine o'clock at night; the stars were shining bright at the time but next morning the ground was covered with ice and snow. The timber was bent over and broken in the road so that axe men had to go ahead of the funeral procession and cut timber away so the procession could pass. It had been his desire and prayer that he might die in cold weather so his people could come to see him before he was buried.

Grandmother and father were living on Big Cedar Creek, six miles S. E. of Hartwell, Ga., now Hart Co., and about three miles from the Savannah River.

Father said as a boy he had often listened to his grandfather tell of his troubles; of his having been dog-bitten and of his step-mother whipping him when a boy. He was a Baptist preacher and preached through the prison (iron) bars to the people on the outside who came to see the prisoners who were in jail for their Baptist faith. He skinned his nose trying to see his friends on the outside. He was put in jail twice, once in Culpeper jail

Cordially yours,

W. J. McMULLAN,

Newton, Miss.

CHRISTIAN

This is a family of Scandinavian origin and had attained great eminence at a very early date. They were deensters or judges in the Isle of Man as early as 1408 and as such succeeded one another several centuries embracing many generations. The name was formerly Mac Cristen then Cristen, and finally about the year 1600 it was changed to its present form by Eiman Mac Cristen, who died in 1605 when only 26 years old, was made deenster and held the office 51 years. He was also Deputy Governor of Peel Castle and the most influential man in the island. Early in the 17th century some of the descendants of this ancient family immigrated to Va., acquired large bodies of land, and entered vigorously into the development of the new country.

Gen. 1. In 1694 Thomas Christian, Sr., obtained a patent for 1,000 acres south of Chickihominy Swamp. As "Mr. Thomas Christian, Sr.," he patented 1,080 acres in Charles City Co., Va., on Oct. 21, 1687. The term "Mr." accorded to an immigrant is indicative of social standing.

Children: Thomas; Charles; James and John.

Gen. 2. Charles Christian lived in Westover Parish, in Charles City Co., Va., obtained numerous patents to land in Goochland Co., Va. There is a record there of his deed of gift (1750) to Stephen Watkins of Amelia Co., Va. The record also shows his deed to Charles Christian, Jr., of Goochland Co., Va., in 1754.

McKINNEY

The McKinney's were of the Clan McKinnon, which means "Beloved Son," according to "The Clans, Septs, and Regiments of the Scottish Highlanders," by Frank Adams.

Michael Mackquinny (Mackquinnay) arrived in Va., about 1635, along with several members of the Thomas family. Philip Thomas is said to have married a sister of Michael Mackquinny. It is generally understood that the father of Michael Mackquinny was Sir Barnaby Mackquinny, one of the Lords of the Isles. Michael's will was proved in open court, held for Isle of Wight County, Va., Aug. 9, 1686, and registered in Wills and Deeds, Vol. II, Part 1, page 254. The Will named his wife, Elizabeth, elder son, John, and the younger son, Barnaby. In 1701 Elizabeth married Thomas Reeves of N. C.

Michael's son Barnaby, married Mary Exum Murfrey, the widow of William Murfrey, in 1719, G. B. Isle of Wight Co., Va., page 19. They moved from Isle of Wight to Bertie Co., N. C., where he left a wonderful record. Their children were: Barnaby, Jr., Will 1737; William, Will 1739; John, Will, 1755; Richard, Will 1755; Robert; Ann, married William Murphy; Mourning, married John Pope; Patience, married Joseph Lane; Christian, married William Hurst. In Edgecomb Co., N. C., D. B., 1741-46, page 22 a Mary Mackinnie made a deed to her three sons, Matthew, William, and Michael Mackinnie in Feb. 1741, witnesses: John Cromwell and Joseph Lane. Ten years later Matthew was buying and selling land in Edgecomb Co., D. B. 4, page 39, page 65. By 1760, Matthew had a grant of land in Southampton Co., Va. Patent Book 36, page 358. Matthews' wife was Sarah Matthews, the daughter of Hugh Matthews of Southampton Co.,

Gen. 1. In 1762, Moses McKinnie witnesses a deed in Southampton Co., Va. By 1774 Moses bought land adjoining Matthew on Three Creeks in Southampton Co., Va. By this time he had married Mary Harris, the daughter of Amos Harris of Southampton Co., Va. In the Southampton Order Book, 1778-1784, page 113, "Moses McKenny recommended as Ensign in Capt. Nicholson's Co. 13 April, 1780, page 118. Moses McKinney produced a commission from his Excellency the Governor to be Ensign in the Militia of this county and Moses McKinney having first taken the oath of fidelity to the Commonwealth was sworn Ensign May 19, 1780." In 1786 Matthew and his wife Sarah sold their land in Southampton on the north side of Three Creeks in St. Luke's Parish, and disappeared from the records. It would seem that they were the parents of Moses, but so far no record has been found to prove it.

In the fall of 1788 (D.B. 7, page 152-155) Moses and Mary McKinney left Southampton Co., for Warren Co., Ga. (D.B. 8, page 702 Southampton Co., Va.) Mary's brothers, Henry and West Harris, followed them to Georgia. Moses' land in Warren Co., was on Big Brier Creek, near Newson's Fort. Moses' Will dated Dec. 3, 1801, Warren Co., Ga., named his wife, Polly, and the following children: Tillman, Anselem, Mason, Moses, Jr., Harris, Polly, Nancy, Matthew, William, and son-in-law, William Rogers.

Gen. 2. Harris McKinney, born March 4, 1784, Southampton Co., Va.; died May 12, 1864, Coosa Co., Ala. He married May 17, 1810 Jency Ivey, the daughter of Sampson Ivey of Warren Co., Ga. She was born March 4, 1797 Warren Co., Ga.; died May 17, 1851, Coosa Co., Ala. Their children were: Verlinda, who married Etheldred Thomas; Patrick, who married 1st, Minerva Moore, 2nd, Mary Coffee; Mary, who married Billy Chappell; Emily, who married 1st Robert McAdory, 2nd Alfred Madison Massengale; Jasper, who married Martha Boazman.

RABUN

Gen. 1. Matthew Rabun, born 1744; died May 14, 1819 in Georgia; married Sarah Warren before 1785. Thought to be the daughter of Professor Warren of William and Mary College of Williamsburg, Va., and his wife Rebecca (Randolph) Warren.

Historical Sketches of N. C. by Wheeler, list Matthew Rabun as Patriot, Assistant Division Quartermaster General of Halifax Co., N. C. Commissioner of Specific Supplies and Assistant Deputy Quartermaster General during the Revolutionary War.

About the year 1785 he, accompanied by his wife, Sarah Warren and five children, moved from Halifax, N. C. to Wilkes Co., Ga., where he resided for one year. The next year he moved to Hancock Co., Ga., where he settled on a plantation which came into his possession, what is now known as Horeb Church vicinity, about one mile from Mayfield and a few miles from Powelton. On page 477 of White's "Historical Collections of Ga.," Matthew Rabun is listed as one of the earliest settlers of Green Co., Ga. This really is the same locality that was later 1793 cut off for Hancock Co., Ga.

In the year 1798 Matthew Rabun was sent as one of the representatives of Hancock Co., Ga., to Louisville, the capital of Georgia, to take part in the proceedings of the Constitutional Convention of that year, which adopted a Constitution that lasted the State of Georgia over a half a century.

Sarah Warren married Matthew Rabun before he moved from Halifax in 1785, and she was the mother of all his children. She is listed as a member of the Powelton Baptist Church 1786. She was a twin sister to Jane Warren, who married Joseph Bordon of Va. Benjamin Bordon, the father of Joseph, was the grantee of vast lands in Va., including nearly the whole of Botetcourt Co.

SHACKELFORD.

Roger Shackelford, the immigrant, came to America prior to 1658 and according to records one Edward Palmer, from England, received a patent or grant of land, 400 acres in Gloucester Co., Va., for transportation of eight persons to Virginia, including Roger Shackelford. The date of this grant was June 4, 1648.

Edward Palmer had a sister, Mary, on this list, and there is good reason to believe that Roger Shackelford married Mary Palmer. Roger, the immigrant, is known to have four sons, namely; James; Francis; John; Zachariah, and probably others. The date of Roger's death is unknown, but as far as any records that have been found are concerned, his name last appeared on the Quit Rent Roll for 1704. It is obvious, then, that he died after that date.

Gen. 1. John Shackelford.

THORNTON

"Omitting a lengthy 'Royal Lineage Chart' and old charts tracing the descent of the Thornton Family from the time when surnames were first originated in England, I begin with 'The Immigrant' and brief references to his more immediate forebears."

Gen. 1. William Thornton, known as the "Immigrant," came to America from Yorkshire, England abt. 1640. Records agree that his father was William Thornton, his mother Frances Robinson, who died in England after he came to America. His grandfather was also named William, died in 1680. His grandmother was Barbara Westby. His great-grandfather was Francis Thornton of "The Hills," (ancestral estate in Yorkshire), whose wife was Joan -----. Francis died in 1566. William settled in York Co., Va., later removed to Gloucester where he built a home and named it "The Hills." He died in Stafford Co., in 1708. The name of his wife is not known. There are records of three sons, William Thornton, Jr., born March 27, 1649; Francis Thornton and Rowland Thornton.

- Gen. 2. Francis Thornton, born Nov. 5, 1651, married Alice Savage, daughter of Capt. Anthony Savage; 2nd wife, Jane, widow of John Harvey of Stafford (no issue). 1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud. The text also notes that clear and concise reporting is necessary for management to make informed decisions.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data. It describes the process of gathering information from different sources and how this data is then processed to identify trends and patterns. The text highlights the need for consistent data collection methods to ensure the reliability of the results.

3. The final part of the document provides a summary of the findings and offers recommendations for future research. It suggests that further studies should focus on developing more sophisticated analytical techniques and on improving the accuracy of data collection. The text concludes by stating that the information presented here is intended to provide a general overview of the current state of the field.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud. The document also notes that records should be kept for a sufficient period to allow for a thorough audit.

2. The second part of the document outlines the specific requirements for record-keeping. It states that all transactions must be recorded in a clear and concise manner, and that the records must be accessible to all authorized personnel. The document also requires that records be kept in a secure and protected environment, and that they be subject to regular audits.

3. The third part of the document discusses the consequences of non-compliance with the record-keeping requirements. It states that failure to maintain accurate records can result in severe penalties, including fines and imprisonment. The document also notes that non-compliance can damage the reputation of the organization and lead to a loss of trust from stakeholders.

4. The fourth part of the document provides guidance on how to implement the record-keeping requirements. It suggests that organizations should develop a comprehensive record-keeping policy and procedure, and that they should provide training to all employees on the requirements. The document also recommends that organizations should use secure and reliable record-keeping systems, and that they should regularly review and update their records.

5. The fifth part of the document concludes by reiterating the importance of record-keeping and the consequences of non-compliance. It encourages organizations to take the necessary steps to ensure that they are fully compliant with the requirements, and that they are able to maintain accurate and reliable records of all transactions.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the role of the auditor in the record-keeping process. It states that the auditor is responsible for verifying the accuracy and completeness of the records, and for reporting any discrepancies to the management. The document also notes that the auditor should maintain a separate record of all audit findings and recommendations, and that these records should be made available to the management for review and action.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the role of the management in the record-keeping process. It states that the management is responsible for ensuring that the record-keeping requirements are fully implemented and maintained. The document also notes that the management should provide the necessary resources and support for the record-keeping process, and that they should regularly review and update the record-keeping policy and procedure.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the role of the employees in the record-keeping process. It states that all employees are responsible for maintaining accurate records of their transactions, and for reporting any discrepancies to the management. The document also notes that employees should be provided with the necessary training and support to ensure that they are able to maintain accurate records.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the role of the record-keeping system in the record-keeping process. It states that the record-keeping system is essential for the efficient and accurate recording of transactions. The document also notes that the record-keeping system should be secure and reliable, and that it should be regularly reviewed and updated.

10. The tenth part of the document concludes by reiterating the importance of record-keeping and the consequences of non-compliance. It encourages organizations to take the necessary steps to ensure that they are fully compliant with the requirements, and that they are able to maintain accurate and reliable records of all transactions.

11. The eleventh part of the document discusses the role of the record-keeping system in the record-keeping process. It states that the record-keeping system is essential for the efficient and accurate recording of transactions. The document also notes that the record-keeping system should be secure and reliable, and that it should be regularly reviewed and updated.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud. The text also notes that clear and concise reporting is necessary for effective communication between different levels of management and for the transparency of the organization's financial activities.

2. The second part of the document focuses on the role of internal controls in ensuring the reliability of financial information. It describes how a well-designed system of internal controls can help to minimize the risk of errors and misstatements, and how it can provide a framework for the consistent application of accounting policies. The text also discusses the importance of regular monitoring and evaluation of the internal control system to ensure that it remains effective and up-to-date.

3. The third part of the document addresses the challenges of financial reporting in a complex and rapidly changing business environment. It highlights the need for organizations to stay abreast of the latest developments in accounting standards and to adapt their reporting practices accordingly. The text also discusses the importance of providing timely and relevant information to stakeholders, and how this can be achieved through the use of modern information technology and data analysis tools.
